Component Mission:

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

The Directorate of Identity Intelligence is seeking a highly-qualified applicant to provide program management for current technology modernization efforts. The primary responsibilities of the Mission Innovation Group is to manage the group's strategic direction in alignment with the broader Identity Intelligence mission, its involvement in IC policy discussions tied to Identity Intelligence efforts, and its crosscutting functions in the directorate involving technological development, training and tradecraft, and data integrity.

Assigned duties include:

- Support DII by gathering, coordinating and de-conflicting information technology requirements and priorities across the directorate.
- Coordinate and communicate regularly with internal and external peers and counterparts to ensure mission requirements are being met.
- Work across directorate to identify and analyze business process interdependencies as they relate to data processing.
- Perform independent research and analysis to identify the impact of policy changes on technology development.

Mandatory Requirements:

- Knowledge of terrorist identities, analysis, compilation, and dissemination.
- Knowledge of IC organizations, policies, and procedures, and their requirements with regard to terrorist identities intelligence.
- Excellent communication skills including the ability to clearly convey complex information to senior leadership, both orally and in writing.
- Demonstrated ability to research and logically analyze, synthesize, and judge information, as well as the ability to review and incorporate multiple sources of information in performing assignments.
- Demonstrated the ability to translate complex, technical findings into an easily understood narrative.
- Ability to work well in a team environment stretching across directorates and the center.

Desired:

- Knowledge of NCTC information technology systems
- Experience with program management or project management
